Order of Rules When Submitting Draft Resolutions
9.2	Submission of Proposal	No	No	No	This is not a motion, but rather the act of bringing your resolution to the dais staff. You will submit the resolution and it will be checked for formatting and content. Once checking is complete, the Chairperson will then inform the body that a delegate can motion for consideration of draft resolution (9.3).
9.3	Consideration of Draft Resolution	Yes	No	Majority	Following the draft resolution's submission to the dais and after it has been distributed to the body, this motion allows the body to officially begin substantive debate on it. If the motion passes the sponsors of the resolution will be invited to explain the resolution to the body and take Points of Inquiry.
9.4	Consideration of Unfriendly Amendments	Yes	No	Majority	This motion will be entertained after the Chairperson approves the amendment via rule 9.2. The Chairperson will then present the amendment to the body, this must be completed before closure of debate is motioned for, Rule 7.9 or 7.10.
9.5	Friendly Amendments	No	No	No	A Friendly Amendment is automatically put into a resolution. To be considered "friendly", it needs to have the approval of all the sponsors of the resolution.
Rules for Rules for Voting Procedures Voting Procedures
9.6	Division of the Question	Yes	2 In favor, 2 Opposed	Majority	This motion can be used after closure of debate and before the body has voted on the resolution. It divides the resolution so that selected clauses can be voted on separately.
10.4.1	Adoption by Consensus	No	No	No Objections	If there are no objections to adopting a proposal by consensus, then the proposal passes by consensus. Standard voting will continue if there is one or more objections.
10.4.2	Roll Call Vote	No	No	No	If this motion is made the Chairperson will call each country's name. Possible responses are: Yes, Yes with Rights, No, No with Rights, Abstain, and Abstain from the Order. This motion is used if a delegate wishes to see how each delegate votes.
